Benefits of MEMBERSHIP

Whether you are a trainee or a full-time hepatologist practicing in the U.S. or abroad, there are many special benefits and services designed especially for you, including:

MEMBERSHIP

Joining AASLD means becoming a part of the leading organization committed to preventing and curing liver disease.

LEADERSHIP

Opportunities to serve as a leader in the field of hepatology, develop innovative educational programs and participate in AASLD committees and Special Interest Groups.

Committees: All AASLD committees are selected during the Call for Volunteers in January/February of each year.

Special Interest Groups (SIGs): SIG membership is a great way to increase your knowledge base and connect with colleagues from around the world who are focused on a particular aspect of hepatology.

JOURNALS

FREE subscriptions to HEPATOLOGY and Liver Transplantation, AASLD's premier journals.

HEPATOLOGY: The premier publication for hepatologists and the most cited reference on liver and biliary tract information.

Liver Transplantation: A peer-reviewed, monthly journal of the Association. The journal is co-published with the International Liver Transplantation Society, ensuring an international information exchange.

EDUCATION

Registration priority dates and discounts to The Liver Meeting®, Digestive Disease Week® and other educational meetings and conferences.

The Liver Meeting®: The premier event in the science and practice of hepatology, this is designed for physicians, surgeons, scientists, educators, nurses, physician assistants and all other hepatology health professionals.

Postgraduate Course: Offered during The Liver Meeting®, this two-day course is one of AASLD's flagship educational events that covers both basic and clinical topics.

Digestive Disease Week®: The largest gathering of clinicians, educators and researchers focusing on the digestive system. As a sponsoring society, AASLD's liver-specific sessions include: excellent liver and biliary tract programs, state-of-the-art presentations, clinical symposia, presidential plenaries and poster presentations.

Single Topic Conferences: Developed by leading hepatologists, Single Topic Conferences focus on the most current and critical topics in liver disease in the areas of basic and clinical research.

GRANTS & AWARDS

AASLD supports research and career development awards in advanced/transplant hepatology, clinical hepatology and basic and translational research.
